CHAPTER V
CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After done chapter I until chapter IV, there are many steps have did by the researcher. Starting from doing pre-observation, conducting a research, until getting the data. In this last chapter, the researcher would like to conclude from the core ideas which had discussed in this research and also the suggestion related to the types of language style used in short story “The Gift of the Magi”.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research question that was stated in Chapter I previously, the purposes of this research was to find out the types of language style in short story “The Gift of The Magi by O. Henry.

In this section, the researcher give conclusion about types of language style found in “The Gift of the Magi” short story by O. Henry. Moreover, this research used observation (document) as an instrument to collect the data in this research. In collecting the data, the researcher read all of the parts of this short story. From document, the researcher analyzed it and found the result of the data. The researcher got the data that related to the types of language style in short story “The Gift of the Magi”. Based on purpose of this research, the researcher found the data what are the types of language style in short story “The Gift of the Magi”. In this research, the researcher use Joos (1976) theories about types of language style in short story. Based on the data analysis and finding in chapter IV, the researcher concludes if there were three of five types that have been found in short story namely: consultative style, casual style and the last one intimate style. In contrary, there were two types that did not found namely: frozen style and formal style (deliberative style). After collecting the transposition and analyzing those words based on the types of language style, the researcher found 10 data of language style that is found, which is there were 1 type of consultative style, 5 types of casual style, and 4 types of intimate style.

B. Suggestion

Related to the result of the study about the types of language style found in “The Gift of the Magi” short story by O. Henry, the researcher hopes that it is could give contribution and knowledge about types of language style. The researcher suggested the others to analyze the types of language style found in “The Gift of the Magi”, because the researcher is interesting about the idea thought.

Finally, the writer hopes that this thesis can give benefits about the types of language style and can be useful to all students and the readers who wants to analyze and study in depth with similar research.